Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about violence.

A thousand violent extremists were pardoned while Mr Elez was rehired after his racist posts came to light. The Biden plan to combat extremism was scrubbed from your web page. They are taking note: the Proud Boys marched in DC; the Base is regrouping in the US; Betar sent you a list of people to deport. You are targeting both individuals and groups: security was pulled for Dr Fauci and Mr Bolten; Judge Englemayer has been threatened after blocking a DOGE action; there have been vile diatribes against trans people and immigrants particularly but also gays and BLM marchers. Right wing violence increased during your first administration and seems poised to do so again making the country a more fearful place. Please assure me that you will address nationalist threats.

My pride in the US derives in part from our safety.

Most respectfully,
Eric Babson
