Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about irresponsibility.

Secretary Kennedy says that 'because we'll make mistakes' several thousand of the tens of thousands he fired last week will need to be hired back - suggesting this was the management plan. Your government has cited an 'administrative error' in rendering Mr Garcia to a hellish prison in El Salvador but continues to fight an order to remedy this extraordinary harm. Vast troves of sensitive data are now open to inexperienced racists. Thousands have been fired with short mass emails. Long term programs are being suddenly ended based a few words with a whiff of DEI. The utter irresponsibility of the incompetents now running roughshod over our government and human rights is breathtaking.

Please assure me that you will treat people with respect.

My pride in the US derives in part from our accountability.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
