Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about bullying.

Your approach to decimating our immigrant communities like your approach to decimating our federal government is that of a bully. You fired those with probationary status- because it was easy. You have sadistically ended one immigration program after another: humanitarian parole for a half million from Cuba, Nicaragua, Venezuela and Haiti, protected status for 22 thousand from Cameroon and Afghanistan, a program for 150 thousand from Ukraine, a family unification program, hundreds of student visas and the CBP One system to organize a million people seeking asylum whose users have now been sent perfunctory threatening letters and emails to leave within a week. The commonality is that these are people who are easy to find and torment.

Please assure me that you will welcome immigrants.

My pride in the US derives in part from our varied backgrounds.

Sincerely,

Eric Babson
