Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about an administrative putsch.

The case of Mr Garcia besides being a sadistic attack on an upstanding member of society has become a test case in your treasonous bid to seize control. At least three federal courts including scotus and judges Boasberg and Xinis have rulings which you are flouting requiring his immediate return from El Salvador. Congress is also being ignored with Mr Garcia's Senator Van Hollen being refused even a meeting with his imprisoned constituent. Rather than supporting the government and residents of the US you are colluding with President Bukele of El Salvador in something of a playground game with each of you pointing to the other to excuse their own (in)actions. You are thereby testing your power to ignore both judicial and congressional oversight.

Please assure me that you will respect the constitution.

My pride in the US derives in part from our separation of powers.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
